

NTGPE accredits all training posts and GP supervisors to train GP registrars through the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners (RACGP) and the Australian College of Rural and Remote Medicine (ACRRM), where eligible and unless otherwise notified.

Each GP wishing to be accredited as a GP supervisor is required to complete an individual Supervisor Accreditation Application form.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Are you an ex-GP registrar?

- No
 Yes

If yes, through which RTO?

How long have you been working in General Practice/Primary Health Care (including training)?

Post general registration, how many years have you been working in rural/remote areas, if at all (including time in training)?

Please note: Darwin urban area is not considered rural and remote by ACRRM. Rural and remote would include posts located in a setting that lacks ready access to specialist medical and other services, and requires the development of own knowledge and skills to match local community need.

Have you ever supervised GP registrars before?

- No
 Yes

If yes, provide details?
